ONLY RARELY IS THE ARCHITECTURE OF A COMMERCIAL BUILDING DEEMED TOO GOOD TO BE REPLACED, EVEN WHEN IT IS NO LONGER NEEDED FOR ITS ORIGINAL FUNCTION. THE GRADE II LISTED EMPORIUM IS ONE SUCH ART DECO CLASSIC

The former department store cried out for sympathetic conversion, to provide luxury living in the heart of Woolwich. It is not just the building that's rich in history: so is Woolwich itself. Once the home of the nation's mightiest military arsenal, Woolwich has fine historic civic and military buildings stretching from the banks of the Thames up to the top of Shooters Hill. Located just east of Greenwich, it is now one of the most desirable and up and coming areas in London, with unrivalled connections to Canary Wharf, central London, and the West End. Emporium enjoys a prime location in the centre of Woolwich's shopping area.

A VIBRANT, THRIVING RIVERSIDE DESTINATION AND THE FASTEST GROWING AREA OF LONDON

PREMIER LOCATION

WOOLWICH IS BEING TRANSFORMED IN THE MOST DYNAMIC URBAN REGENERATION PROJECT SINCE DOCKLANDS WAS REDEVELOPED, BUILDING ON THE MAJESTIC HERITAGE OF THE ROYAL ARSENAL. PRESTIGIOUS NEW DEVELOPMENTS SUCH AS EMPORIUM, ARE MAKING WOOLWICH ONE OF THE MOST SOUGHT AFTER AREAS, HARKING BACK TO ITS REGAL PAST

It is part of the Royal Borough of Greenwich, a favourite destination for locals and tourists. There are stunning views up river to Canary Wharf and the City skyline. Emporium is in the main shopping area of Woolwich. There are great restaurants nearby, including Blue Nile (Eritrean and Italian) and Curry Asia, which has been serving up tasty Indian dishes since 1962. For more traditional pub food, head to The Woolwich Equitable and the Dial Arch. Woolwich's own brewery Hop Stuff supplies both with quality ales on tap. Enjoy a leisurely weekend breakfast at Cornerstone Café or Koffees and Kream. Further afield, Greenwich, Eltham, Charlton and Blackheath all have an intimate village-style feel and offer brilliant dining and shopping experiences.

PREMIER

WOOLWICH ITSELF HAS PLENTY TO EXPLORE. WANDER THROUGH THE ROYAL WOOLWICH ARSENAL, WITH ITS STUNNING HISTORIC BUILDINGS, GREENWICH HERITAGE CENTRE, AND FIREPOWER MUSEUM

Explore the open spaces of Woolwich Common and beyond to 8,000-year-old Oxleas Wood and 18th-century Severndroog Castle, for one of London's best views. Visit the gallery and meet the artists at Second Floor Studios & Arts, one of London's largest creative spaces, a short stroll away. Beresford Market has provided a focal point for local shopping since the 17th century and still thrives today. General Gordon Square is a magnet in the warmer weather when the big screen shows Wimbledon, opera performances, and other events. Nearby Greenwich is full of historic attractions such as the Royal Park and Observatory, the Maritime Museum, and the Cutty Sark.

Of course, Greenwich is also where time begins: it's the home of the Prime Meridian. Historic Greenwich is a designated UNESCO World Heritage site.

For fitness fans, the Waterfront Sports and Leisure Centre and the Charlton Lido And Lifestyle Club (with its heated 50-metre pool) are close by. The Thames Path and Green Chain network of hiking trails are almost on your doorstep, with miles of walks, cycle paths, and breathtaking views. Nearby golf clubs include Shooters Hill and Blackheath, both with beautifully landscaped courses and traditional clubhouses.

PREMIER CONNECTIONS

EMPORIUM HAS EVERY KIND OF TRANSPORT CONNECTION YOU COULD WISH FOR. CURRENTLY IT IS SERVED BY THE DOCKLANDS LIGHT RAILWAY (DLR) WITH FAST CONNECTIONS TO LONDON CITY AIRPORT, CANARY WHARF, STRATFORD AND BANK

Soon Crossrail will revolutionise east–west travel in London and slash journey times from Woolwich. You'll be able to get from Woolwich to central London in 21 minutes and Heathrow Airport in 52 minutes. London City Airport is just across the river and two stops away on the DLR. It offers regular direct services to New York and numerous destinations across the UK and Europe. You can have breakfast in Woolwich and be poolside in Palma, or sipping martinis in Milan, by early afternoon.

An overground rail service runs from Woolwich into central London, or out into the countryside. Go on a daytrip to seaside destinations such as Margate, Broadstairs or Whitstable. In Woolwich, you're on the doorstep of Kent, also known as the Garden of England.

The River Thames remains a significant thoroughfare and Thames Clippers runs commuter and weekend services from Woolwich into central London, stopping at Greenwich and Canary Wharf. The Woolwich Free Ferry is a stone's throw from Emporium: take your car on it or simply walk on. The Emirates Airline runs from North Greenwich to the Excel Exhibition Centre on the opposite side of the Thames.

Frequent TfL bus services run from Woolwich to connect to many parts of the capital.

THE ART DECO BUILDING WAS BUILT AS A DEPARTMENT STORE IN 1938 BY THE ROYAL ARSENAL CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY TO SERVE THE NEARBY COMMUNITY OF ROYAL WOOLWICH ARSENAL WORKERS

Emporium has many fine original features such as period railings, mouldings and ceilings up to 3 metres high, which have been preserved and incorporated in this exciting new phase of rejuvenation.
